

TOOT 66-7

11 July 1966

NEXT PVS MEETING IS WEDNESDAY, 20 JULY, AT 8:00 P.M. PLACE: MIKE RURA'S BACKYARD LAWN (WEATHER PERMITTING) OR RECREATION ROOM AT 1930 UPSHUR STREET, N.W., WASHINGTON, D.C.

President Dick King assures that all PVS business will be transacted in five minutes but that the festivities will last longer. Dress is casual.

How to get there: The Woodner Hotel (16th Street) and the Carter Barron Amphitheater are both a short distance from Mike's house. From the Beltway, take Georgia Avenue/Silver Spring exit, proceed south about three blocks to 16th Street cut-off (beyond second traffic light), then down 16th Street about four miles to Upshur Street (traffic light). Turn right at Upshur, proceed $3\frac{1}{2}$ blocks to red brick house on left (third house from corner). When you hear festive noises, stop!! That's it. Nearby Virginians: Come up 16th Street from downtown Washington and turn left at Upshur Street. The turn is at second traffic light after passing the Woodner Hotel.

Dick Harsh conducts a weekly (except on 14 July) Thursday evening rock climbing clinic at Carderock Recreational Area. PVSers interested in mountaineering, caving, ice climbing, snow field skiing, and avalanche control will find Dick's instruction interesting and useful. Contact Dick Harsh, Larry Pease or Bill Jarrett for details.

PVS sailors note: Under Russ Kinaman's able direction, a joint sailing/camping expedition was conducted over July 4th. It involved two sailboats and very gentle winds in the Oxford/Knapp's Narrows/Tillman Island area. The Larry Peases, Russ Kinamans, Dick Harsh, Jack Fox, and several prospective PVSers made up the party which beat the prevailing doldrums by providing all kinds of non-sailing fun. Russ Kinaman will continue the sailing events. Contact him directly to improve the cut of your jib.

Paul Jordan of the Baltimore Ski Club, sponsor of last year's successful one week Christmas Ski Trip to Vail, Colorado, will run a similar flight to Europe this year. Doris Hege has the details.

Tennis is now a regularly scheduled PVS event. Time: 10:00-12:00 a.m., Sundays. Place: Hains Point Courts. Max Bunnell is in charge. You are invited, of course.
