

PVS PVS

COOK BOOK

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Responsibility for the publication of this PVS Cookbook lies with those satisfied (well-fed) members who attended such occasions as the International Dinner and other more athletic events after which sustenance was needed. The epicurean concoctions offered on those occasions by the participating cooks are here presented for your pleasure, along with additional mouth-watering recipes. All have been tested and proven in the kitchens of the contributors.

Special thanks are due Marilyn Clark, Pat Cope, Malle McKinley, and Alice Swalm, without whose valuable assistance and suggestions this collection would not have come about. Mort Kuff has given generously of his time and talents as is evident in the design and illustrations included, and for his successful efforts we are deeply grateful.

Finally, and most importantly, to the ladies and gentlemen who were willing to share their culinary experiences, we express our sincere appreciation.

Bon appétit!

Bette Walker
